

Membership Information & Amendment to Retail Installment Sale Contract / Insurance Information

This Amendment to Retail Installment Sale Contract amends the Retail Installment Sales Contract entered into by the Buyer and, if applicable, Co-Buyer listed below and Creditor-Seller, dated ("Finance Contract").
The Finance Contract is amended to add the following provisions:
Security: The security interest granted in the Finance Contract secures payments owed under the Finance Contract, all of your agreements under the Finance Contract and all other obligations that you may have now or in the future that are owed to us, except obligations secured by your principal residence.
Insurance: The physical damage insurance on your vehicle must include comprehensive and collision coverage and may not have a deductible higher than $1,000 for either. Your insurance must name Numerica as the loss payee.
All other agreements, terms, and conditions set forth in the Finance Contract remain in full force and effect. By signing below, you agree that you have read this document in its entirety and agree to the terms and conditions hereof:
